A DARK OF ENDLESS DAYS

Star Trails Tetralogy Volume II

by Marcha Fox

About the Book

On hostile planets like Cyraria, terralogists are in high demand and Laren Brightstar is one of the best. Regional governors compete for positions at the territorial level, based on their economic achievements, allowing those with terraforming skills to demand a high price. Refusing to work for those with devious intent, however, has an even higher price. Thus, the Brightstar family discovers when they're plunged into a web of political intrigue on a planet cursed with lethal weather where survival can never be taken for granted. Will their missing daughter return with help? Or will she remain trapped forever on an alien world?

About the Author

Marcha Fox is an avid science fiction fan and author with over 20 years' experience at NASA's Johnson Space Center in Houston, Texas. Inspired by science fiction to pursue a physics degree and career in a technical field, she hopes to instill the same fascination in young readers by including scientific principles in her stories, while providing older ones with classic hard science fiction.
